

Executive Department
State of Idaho

The Office of the Governor
Proclamation

State Capitol
Boise

WHEREAS, hundreds of dedicated telecommunicators daily serve the citizens of Idaho by answering calls for police, fire and emergency medical services, by dispatching the appropriate assistance as quickly as possible, and also by working to ensure safety for the police, fire and medical personnel at the scene; and

WHEREAS, the critical functions performed by professional telecommunicators include those related to forestry and conservation operations, highway safety and maintenance activities, and many other operations performed by federal, state and local government agencies; and

WHEREAS, telecommunicators' indispensable work is often taken for granted and not recognized, therefore it is appropriate that a special time is set aside to acknowledge the members of this vital profession;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DIRK KEMPTHORNE, Governor of the State of Idaho, do hereby proclaim April 10 through 16, 2005, to be in Idaho.

PUBLIC SAFETY TELECOMMUNICATORS' WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho at the Capitol in Boise on this sixth day of April in the year of our Lord two-thousand and five and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred twenty-ninth and of the Statehood of Idaho the one hundred fifteenth.
